Composer's Note:

In 1997 I wrote Music for All Saints Day for Don Armitage and the choir of Augsburg Lutheran Church in Winston-Salem, North Carolina. That year the organ was away for a well-deserved vacation and restoration, so I scored the music for guitar and flute accompaniment. Back then our All Saints service was a Vespers service, but in more recent years the service has been a Communion service, so I decided to revise, rescore, and rewrite the music from 1997 so it more closely follows the liturgy of the Communion service, and specifically the shape of the service we do on All Saints Evening.

I. Requiem/Kyrie (7:30) – The Requiem is from the 1997 version, the Kyrie is new.

Requiem aeternam dona eis, Domine, et lux perpetua luceat eis. Exaudi orationem meam, audi me, O Domine. Requiem aeternam...	Grant them eternal rest, Lord, and may perpetual light shine on them.     Hear my prayer;     hear me, O Lord. Grant them eternal rest...
Kyrie eleison. Christe eleison. Kyrie eleison.	Lord, have mercy. Christ, have mercy. Lord, have mercy.
Requiem aeternam...	Grant them eternal rest...

II. Offertory (6:30) – This movement is new, and also appears in my string quartet, Small Towns. The hymn tune KINGSLYNN is used, with words by Herman Stuempfle. The movement is meant for the offering of the elements of Communion, not a monetary offering.

O God, whose healing power is present everywhere,
pervading all creation with your eternal care;
look now in your compassion upon this world of pain,
and lives now bound and broken make free and whole again.

III. Sanctus (2:00) – This brief and raucous movement is new.

Sanctus, sanctus, sanctus Dominus; pleni sunt coeli et terra gloria tua. Hosanna in excelsis. Benedictus qui venit in nomine Domini. Hosanna in excelsis.	Holy, holy, holy Lord; heaven and earth are full of your glory.     Hosanna in the highest. Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord.     Hosanna in the highest.

IV. Lord's Prayer (1:30) – This movement is new. I chose to set the words in chant-like speech rhythms rather than making the music broad and lyrical.

V. Agnus Dei (5:45) – This is a revision of the final movement of the 1997 piece. The hymn in the middle, “If you but trust in God to guide you,” is my melody with words by Georg Neumark, 1657, on Psalm 55:22.

Agnus Dei qui tollis peccata mundi,
miserere nobis.

Agnus Dei qui tollis peccata mundi,
miserere nobis.

Agnus Dei qui tollis peccata mundi,
dona nobis pacem.

*Lamb of God, who take away the sins of the world,
Have mercy on us.*

*Lamb of God, who take away the sins of the world,
Have mercy on us.*

*Lamb of God, who take away the sins of the world,
Grant us peace.*

If you but trust in God to guide you
And place your confidence in Him,
You'll find him always there beside you,
To give you hope and strength within.
For those who trust God's changeless love
Build on a rock that will not move.

Sing, pray, and keep his ways unswerving,
Offer your service faithfully,
And trust his word; though undeserving,
You'll find his promise true to be.
God never will forsake in need
The soul that trusts in him indeed.

Dona nobis pacem.

Grant us peace

VI. Valediction (3:00) – This is a rewriting of “God Be in my Head” from the 1997 version. These words, much beloved by composers and singers alike, are from the Sarum Primer, 1514. This movement is meant to be sung after the reading of the names of those who have died in the past year.

God be in my head and in my understanding.
God be in my eyes and in my looking.
God be in my mouth and in my speaking.
God be in my heart and in my thinking.
God be at my end and my departing.

VII. Benediction (2:00) – These words are Michael Morgan's lyrical setting of Nunc Dimittis, the Song of Simeon, Luke 2:29-32. This was originally written in 2000 for my setting of Compline, the final service of the day, which we used interchangeably with Vespers for a while at Augsburg.

Now in peace and calm assurance,
Let your servant go, O Lord,
For my eyes have seen your glory,
Ever promised in your Word.

Light to all who sit in darkness,
God as flesh, with flesh to dwell,
Eyes of faith now see salvation
In your gift, Immanuel.

The Requiem was first sung on November 4, 2007, at Augsburg Lutheran Church, with Don Armitage conducting, for the All Saints Memorial Eucharist. The string players were Corine Brouwer and Angela Michelle Story, violins; Louise Campbell, viola; Jennifer Alexandra Johnston, cello; and William Osborne, organ.

Translations of the Latin are by Robert Ulery.
